

MICHAEL B. COLLIER

2390 Colgate Dr., Costa Mesa, CA 92626
(714) 396-4037

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Public School

- Music Department Chairman
- Taught Marching, Concert and Jazz Band.
- Girl's and Concert Choir
- Designed curriculum to match California Music Standards of Artistic Perception, Creative Expression, Historical & Cultural Context, Aesthetic Valuing, and Connections, Relationships and Applications
- Wrote and received over $10,000. In grant money for instruments and music.
- Rehearsed and performed for community and school functions.
- Promoted a positive learning environment to teach and assess individual performance skills
- Rehearsed and performed music for band in 2005-2006. Partial list includes:

| | |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Folk Song Suite | Ralph Vaughn Williams |
| First Suite in E Flat | Gustov Holst |
| An American in Paris | George Gershwin |
| Mannin Veen | Hayden Wood |
| Irish Tune from Country Derry | Percy Granger |
| March to the Scaffold | Hector Berlioz |
- Use Learning contracts to assess individual student work
- Worked with parent and boosters to help ensure student development
- Use vocabulary lists and music theory in classroom presentations

Private School

- Taught critical thinking, decision making skills, ethics and values to high school students, grades 9-12 for 17 years
- Designed and taught lessons to meet specific student needs
- Attended and planned student activities
- Generated enthusiasm for learning through upbeat, fun and compassionate delivery
- Retention of 97% for a class with a 5:50 AM start time.
- Attended and taught Inservice classes.

Accomplishment

- Author "How to Start a Lighting Business"
 - Published in Architectural Digest, Orange County Magazine, Garden Design, Ortho's Home and Garden / Lighting
 - Guest lecturer for California and Arizona Landscape Contractor Association
 - Wrote and taught curriculum for Nightscaping University
 - Orange Coast College alumni volunteer (various assignments)
 - Teach the Teacher, Symposium Presenter, Brigham Young University 1999 to 2003
 - Newport Mesa Foundation Grant Recipient—2001
-

- C. J. Segerstrom Grant Recipient-2001
- Credit Union of Southern California- 2004 Student Impact Grant
- Member ACICS school visit committee

Professional Seminars and Workshops

West Orange County Professional Development Center
 Classroom Management 2001
 Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association
 Conducting Articulation 2005
 University of California, Irvine
 Course Approval Seminar 2001
 Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools
 Accreditation Workshop 2000
 Curriculum Development 2000

WORK HISTORY

| | | | |
|------|--------------------------------|---|----------------|
| 2004 | Instrumental Music | Mountain View HS | El Monte, CA |
| 2001 | West Coast Manager | In Person Payments | Fairfield, NJ |
| 2000 | Band Director | Estancia High School | Costa Mesa, CA |
| 1999 | Executive Director | Southern California International College | Santa Ana, CA |
| 1998 | Director of Education, Evening | Computer Learning Centers | Anaheim, CA |
| 1996 | Training Manager | Deseret Industries | Santa Ana, CA |
| 1992 | School Director | Nightscaping University | Redlands, CA |
| 1984 | Instructor | Dale Carnegie Sales Course | Anaheim, CA |
| 1984 | High School Teacher | CES | Costa Mesa, CA |

EDUCATION

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| National University | Master's of Education, May 2005 |
| University of Redlands | Bachelor of Science, Business Administration |
| Orange Coast College | Associate of Arts, Liberal Arts |

Commission on Teacher Credentialing-Music #000241165
 Member—Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association

Dale Carnegie Courses-Graduate of Human Relations, Sales Management

Personal Qualifications

Patient, Able to work as a team member and communicate with students, parents and administration. Can maintain classroom order and help children resolve interpersonal conflicts, Work to ensure student success, Can work well with auxiliary units and booster clubs. Honest, Decision-Maker.